Albany Literacy Zone Welcome Center In the Family and Neighborhood Resource Center

The Welcome Center is located at 15 Trinity Place.
Our job is to connect adult learners with teachers, helpful organizations, and services that can help you continue your education. Our full-time case manager can help adults enroll in free and convenient high school preparation classes and exams, and English as a Second Language classes. The case manager will also help adult students with challenges in employment, housing, health care, social services, nutrition, mental health, substance abuse, family, transportation, and personal finance.

We will help you answer questions and find resources so you can learn!

Wish you had a high school diploma?

Want to learn or improve your English?

Does life sometimes get in the way?

The Albany
Literacy Zone
can help!

What is the Albany Literacy Zone?

- We help adults in Albany succeed in their education. We have friendly, professional staff who can help you enroll in classes and fix problems that prevent adults from continuing their education.
- We support adults who want to increase academic and employment skills, earn a high school diploma, and improve their knowledge and use of the English language.
- We are funded by the State Education Department, and are led by Trinity Alliance and Capital Region BOCES, along with many community organizations and local agencies.

What can the Literacy Zone do for you?

- We help you get the education you need!
- We help you get help from community resources and local agencies.
- We provide on-site and nearby, convenient ESL and high school diploma classes.

Please call or visit the Albany Literacy Zone for more information.
