The goal of the GST BOCES Elmira Literacy Zone, located at the Elmira Economic Opportunity Program, is to help families and individuals, in the 14901 zip code, become better educated, employed and self-sufficient by providing comprehensive case management services, as well as to help improve the relationships with parents and their child's school.

Greater Southern Tier BOCES Literacy Zone Mural

A mural was painted in downtown Elmira to promote family literacy and to give back to our community. Literacy Zone staff and students joined together to lend a hand painting.

Ribbon Cutting Ceremony

October 15, 2013

GST BOCES Adult Literacy staff, students and representatives from the City of Elmira and the Arts Council gathered at the Ribbon Cutting Ceremony in Elmira, NY.

The Creativity Zone: Free, Fun Educational Activities

At the Creativity Zone, parents with school-aged children take part in educational activities related to a monthly literacy topic. They also use the Promethean ActivBoard to read stories, and play educational interactive games. This program is available to families with school-aged children in the 14901 zip code.
