Long Beach Adult Learning Center Literacy Zone

For over 50 years, the Long Beach Adult Learning Center (LBALC) has been providing literacy and English language proficiency instructions to thousands of individuals living in Long Beach and the surrounding communities.

Our success has been based on our mission to empower adults to reach their highest potential as learners, parents, consumers and citizens through education and technology.

More than just a learning center, the LBALC is a second home to many of our students.

This year the LBALC was designated a Literacy Zone by the New York State Department of Education. The goal of the Literacy Zone is to meet the literacy needs of residents from birth to adult.. By providing a wide variety of services and activities, the objective of the literacy zone is a stronger community through education and training.

Family Welcome Center
